Warm Up: What is a favorite drink?

- A1. Describe how worry, anxiousness feels to you?
 2. Read Acts 16:22-30. How can blaming and brooding become possible temptations for Paul and Silas?
 3. When you consider Paul and Silas' response to a situation that could definitely partner with worry, what does it encourage you to do the next time worry is wanting space?
 4. How do you address the presence of worry?
 5. When worry is fighting for your mind, where do you struggle; determine whether it is Constructive Concern or Destructive Worry? Determining the amount of risk that is present and responding appropriately? Or developing a plan if the thing you are worried about occurs?
 6. What can help determine the reality potential and risk amount of a worry item?
 7. The author made this statement in conclusion, "Don't let your desire to be in control become a testimony to a lack of faith in God's ability to take care of you. Don't make it your job to do God's job. Live like you believe in Him, what He can do, and what He will do for you." Where does your worry potential fit in this paragraph? Explain

[We encourage you to write what comes to you during the morning]

The Word for Your Week (NLT)

Those who live in the shelter of the Most High will find rest in the shadow of the Almighty. 2 This I declare about the Lord: He alone is my refuge, my place of safety; he is my God, and I trust him. Psalm 91:1-2

The Lord is my strength and shield. I trust him with all my heart. He helps me, and my heart is filled with joy. I burst out in songs of thanksgiving. Psalm 28:7

Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with . . . the anxieties of life, Luke 21:34

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Romans 15:13

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer
Romans 12:12
