Warm UP: When was an occasion where you stopped what you were doing to help someone?

A1. Describe (smells, sounds, etc) the picture you have of the Joseph, Mary, and the baby in a manger.

2. I hear a late-night knock on the door, a reluctant inn owner opening the door just to share what he probably had numerous times that night, "Sorry, there is no room." What have you reflected about the inn keeper?

3. When you are stressed, feeling overwhelmed & exhausted; how have you experienced not having any room for Christ?

4. Luke 2:1-7; list the stressful realities that are present in these few verses.

5. If you are in a season of struggle, God understands, from the first breathe as a baby, he stepped into what is difficult for his parents. God nudged a busy inn keeper to provide a blessing for the savior of the world. Who has God sent your direction to provide that unexpected blessing?

Word for The Week (NLT)

The man answered, "'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart. all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.' And, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

Luke 10:27

"The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked. Who really knows how bad it is? ¹⁰ But I, the Lord, search all hearts and examine secret motives. I give all people their due rewards, according to what their actions deserve." Jeremiah 17: 9-10

And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. ⁶ And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. ⁷ Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. Deuteronomy 6: 5-7

Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect. Romans 12:2
